

The FAA should change the ATP Privileges section 61.167
section (3) to read

Only as provided in this section, unless the airline transport pilot also holds a current and valid flight instructor certificate, in which case the holder may exercise instrument priveleges and flight instructor privileges of subpart H of part 61 for for which he or she holds an airline transport pilot certificate or flight instructor certificate.